A group of independent Scottsdale businesses are highlighted as part of a new effort from Local First Arizona. The nonprofit organization has prepared a map identifying independent businesses in Scottsdale.

The Small Wonders map joins other Local First schematics of Phoenix and Tempe.

Like existing efforts, the aim of the Scottsdale push is to promote locally owned business and to encourage residents and tourists to patronize independent businesses.

In addition to Local First founder Kimber Lanning, U.S. Rep Harry Mitchell, D-Tempe, Scottsdale Mayor Jim Lane and members of the tourism and business community are rallying behind the effort launched as part of Scottsdale's Thursday night Art Walks.
